A Hawaiian Belle's Outfit,

General Comly, United States Minister to the Sandwich Islands, is now in Cleveland, Ohio. The general is in better health than when he left two years ago, and reports the health of Mrs. Comly, who remained in Honolulu, as much improved. He submitted to a surgical operation before leaving for America.

which, the doctors tell him, will restore his health completely.

The general brought a number of curiosities from Honolulu, and has a number more on the way. Among those which are now strewn about his room is the entire wardness of a native belle, such as was were in the Sandwich Islands within the memory of people yet living. It is something on the order of that of the Georgia major-neither expensive nor extensive. The most voluminous part of the ward robe of the fair Kanaka is a cross between a very brief skirt and an apron. It is word about A NOTED DIVINE SAYS:

Dr. Tutt—Dear Sir: For ten years I have been a martyr to Dyspepsia, Constipation and Piles. Last Spring your Pills were recommended to me; I used them (but with little faith.) I am now a well man, have a good appetite, digestion perfect, regular stools, piles gone, and I have gained forty pounds solid flesh. They are worth their weight in gold.

Rev. R. L. Simpson, Louisville, Ky.

Let You brief skirt and an apron. It is were about the waist and more nearly resembles a flybrush fastened to a belt than anything else known in this climate. That is to say, it consists of the belt and a complement of fringe some nine inohes in length, and very light and cool as to texture. The only other article of woar that goes with it is a beautiful necklace made of the seeds of a Sandwich Island plant. This is fastened to gether in tasty designs by heating the material. The fly brush affair might be compressed into a part. fly brush affair might be compressed into a paper collar box and the necklace into a much less space. There was no growling about excessive milli ner bills in the good old days when this simple attire was the prevailing fashion among King Kalakaua's ancestors, and bankruptoies were unknown. General Comly also brought a large collection of shells and corals, some of which are very beautiful; also, a number of other curiosities, such as walrus and whales' teeth-the primitive hooks used by the natives in fishing, and other implements of carious design and uses. As to the climate of the Sandwich Islands. the General says it is as near perfection as can be attained, and seldom varies more than a tew degrees the year round. There are plenty of Americans and Europeans in the islands, the Americans predominating, but the Loglish, by hanging more closely together, gain greater advantages than their numerical strength would entitle them to otherwise.

A Lost Heiress .- There is an estate worth over $100,000 awaiting Rosa Dietche, or Rosa Noll, and the Oswego Times is authority for the statement that a reward of $1,000 is offerered for information that will lead to her discovery by Mr. Dietche, who is making au industrious search for the last beiress. The story is quite remantic and interesting. About 25 years ago the Dietche family, from Baden, Germany, arrived in New York. The family scattered, and one of the girls-Resa-shortly afterward married Henry Nell, in Syracuse. After becoming the father of one child-Catherine-Noll deserted his wife and went to Chicago, from Weedsport, where the family then lived. Mrs. Noll, three years afterward, returned to Syracuse, and found employment in the family of Dr. Blanchard Fisgate. This is as far as she has been traced. It has been as certained that after the separation Henry Nell proceeded to Chicago, and by hard labor and trugal habits amassed a large fortune. Ten or twenty years since he was taken sick and after a lingering illness died. On his death bed he repented of his unfaithful conduct towards his young spouse, and willed her his vast estate, amounting to $80,000. This will was admitted to probate, and during this long period of time has never been claimed by the legatee. The interest accruing has swelled the amount until it has reached the handsome sum of $160,000 and upwords. The gentleman who was in search of Mrs. Noll is an own brother. He says that his sister is over 45 years of age, and the daughter aged about 24. THE Jewish Herald, of London, states that Sir Meses Montefiore, in pursuance of a design for re establishing the Jews in their accient city, "has recently given orders to prepare for cultivation all the land in the front of the Judah Torah houses, in Jerusalem. The rocks will be removed, terraces built all along, as it used to be in the time of King Solomon, and divided into twenty two partitions, so that every inmate of the Torah houses may cultivate the nccessary vegetables, etc., for himself and family. Sir Moses has also caused a very large cistern to be constructed in the centre of the field, which will secure a full supply of water for all of them. There will be a beautiful verandah in the front of the houses, so as to protect the ismates from the glare and light of a burning suo. The verandah was sent direct from London. He has also had a new entrance made in the centre of the boundary wall, built a lodge one of the houses, to give the alarm in case of emergency. Senatorial Convention.
